This document does not purport to provide a legal interpretation of the Waste Management (Waste Electrical and Electronic Equipment) Regulations 2005 (S.I. No. 340 of 2005) as amended or the Waste Management (Batteries and Accumulators) Regulations 2008 (S.I. No. 268 of 2008) as amended. The WEEE Register Society Ltd. developed this document as guidance to producers in fulfilling their obligations. Users of this document should use the material provided therein for information purposes only. The WEEE Register Society Ltd. does not accept any responsibility whatsoever for loss or damage occasioned or claimed to have been occasioned, in part or in full, as a consequence of any person acting or refraining from acting, as a result of a matter contained in this document.

Individual companies must make their own decisions with due diligence to European Parliament and Council Directive 2002/96/EC on waste electrical and electronic equipment as amended and European Parliament and Council Directive 2006/66/EC on batteries and accumulators and waste batteries and accumulators as amended and National Legislation derived from these Directive. Producers are advised to document their decisions in determining the category of a battery. Producers must rely on their own legal advice on all questions of scope. Binding interpretation of Community legislation is the exclusive competence of the European Court of Justice.
